

Brand New: PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COURSES

The V&A's new intensive professional development courses provide you with the skills you need to work in the heritage sector today.

The Enterprising Museum

29 February – 4 March

Led by V&A award-winning experts, this course provides an insight into how your museum can develop and monetise products which complement the visitor experience

Innovative Learning

7-11 March

A new UK version of our acclaimed international course, this course provides a unique opportunity to develop your learning programmes for all audiences

How to Work with Artists and Designers in Museums and Collections

4 March

This one day workshop will examine different ways to work with contemporary artists and designers in residencies, education projects, commissions and more

How to Work with Designers and Architects in Museums and Collections

15 April

Looking at live and recent V&A projects, we explore the relationship between the Museum and world class designers and architects through a range of different projects

Handling Museum Objects

11 February

This new, one-day workshop, led by V&A conservators and technicians, demonstrates the best and safest ways to handle different materials and a variety of objects

Photographing Museum Objects

18 March

Led by the V&A's specialist photographic team, this course demonstrates the best ways to record every angle of the most complicated objects, large and small

Find out more at vam.ac.uk/cpd

The V&A logo is rendered in a large, bold, yellow serif font. It is positioned in the bottom right corner of the page, partially overlapping the image of a stone sculpture. The background of the entire page is a dark, moody photograph of a person's hands using a fine tool to work on a stone sculpture of a human face.